Nehemiah on Leadership

Created by // Taylor Tollison

Nehemiah is considered to be one of the best leaders in the Bible. He leads through massive transition against persecution and motivates his people to do the unthinkable. His vast array of skills make his book a goldmine for leaders and potential leaders to learn from.

Whether you are a long time campus minister, an aspiring one, or a student leader, you will walk away from this study sharpened and inspired. You will be challenged by Nehemiah's' capacity, vision, creativity and more. Let God's Word shape you into the leader He wants you to be.

Instructions

Read the book of Nehemiah and make observations on Nehemiah's leadership.

Vision

What was the scope of his mission? What did he let influence his vision?

Prayer Life

How did he pray? What did he pray?

Plans and Strategy

What did he consider when planning for the future? How did God's commands influence those choices?

Dealing with "Naysayers"

We will all have critics when we make difficult choices. Consider how Nehemiah dealt with his and how we are to respond when people think we're being foolish.

Commitment to the Word

How did the Scriptures influence what Nehemiah did?
