

The 3 Modes of Evangelism

	Ministry	Natural	Body
Definition	Taking the gospel to those we don't yet know.	Taking the Gospel to those we already know (family, coworkers, classmates, neighbors...).	The collective witness of believers to people who become exposed to their group.
Biblical examples	Paul's missionary journeys Jesus' ministry Peter in Acts 2 The 70	Andrew - Peter (brother) Phillip - Nathaniel (friend) Matthew - Tax collectors (coworkers) Samaritan woman - Hometown	Acts 2:42-47 -the early Church John 17:22-23 -unity of the body
Relative historic effectiveness	Least	Middle	Most
Scope	Largest	Middle	Smallest
Keys to success	Key for the outsider to go into new areas Key for training Key for expansion into new areas	Key for the insider Must be in relationships with lost people	The body must be "in shape" We must be loving each other We must provide occasions for lost people to come with us
Does it require initiative?	Yes	Yes	Yes
Does it employ relationships?	Yes	Yes	Yes
How to use it on campus

The 3 Modes of Evangelism

	Ministry	Natural	Body
Definition
Biblical examples
Relative historic effectiveness
Scope
Keys to success
Does it require initiative?
Does it employ relationships?
How to use it on campus			