ILLUSTRATION #1 - “The Just Judge”

ILLUSTRATION #2 - "The Scale"

Question #1:

*"How would you rate yourself
on a scale of 0 to 100?"*

Question #2:

"If God's minimum standard was one point higher than yours, what would happen to you?"

Question #3:

"Do you know what God's minimum standard is?"

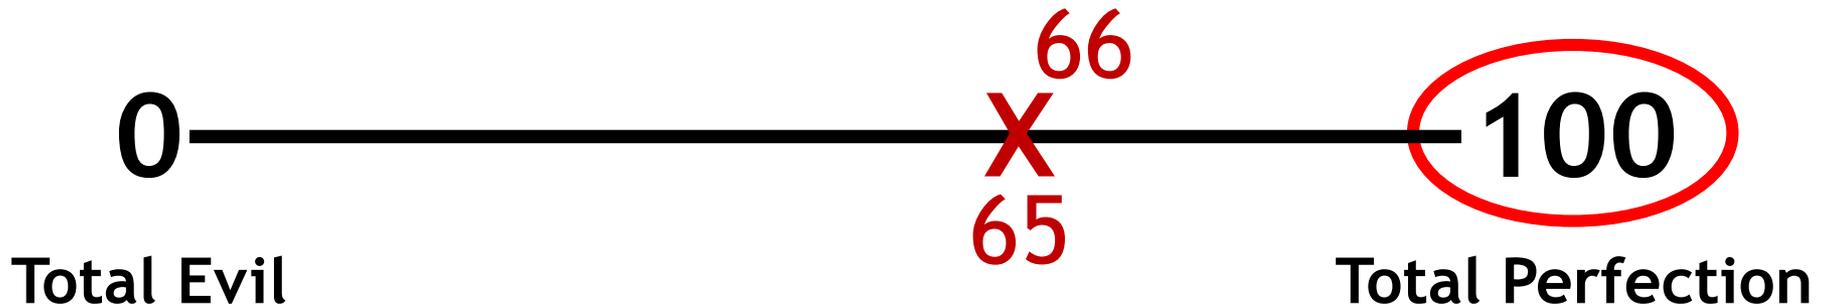

ILLUSTRATION #3
The Cockroach”

Key Concept #1:

The penalty increases according to the value of the one offended.

Key Concept #2:

There's an infinite penalty for offending an infinite God.

GOD IS HOLY

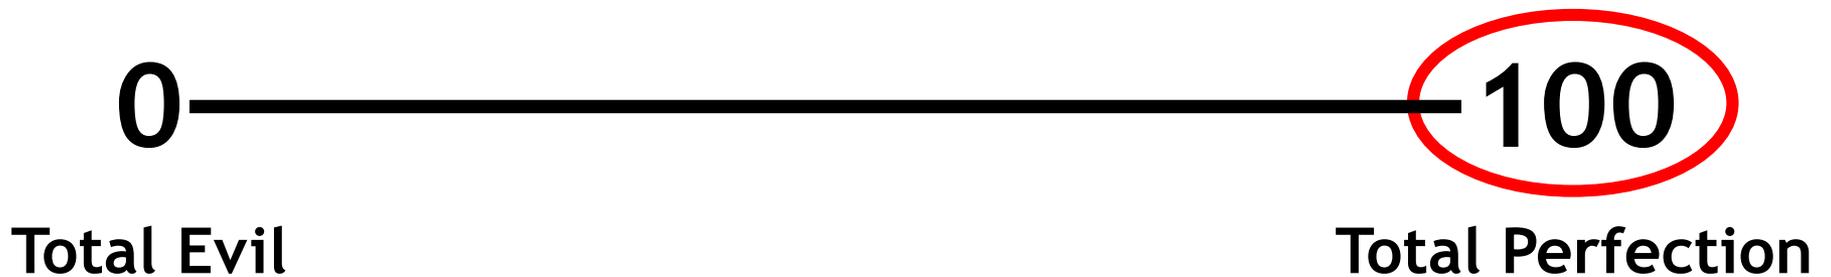

So how can sinful people be made compatible with Him?

GOD IS ALSO LOVING

But how can God exercise His love to provide forgiveness without violating His holiness that requires justice?

Jesus was 100% perfect.

On that basis, he can satisfy God's justice on our behalf!

Key Concept #3:

God's Son is equal to God's value.
Jesus' death satisfies God's justice.

The mischievous ones few laughing away,
 Limpety limpetty bump,
 And woud he would woud them the same next day
 Limpety limpetty bump.

THERE was an old man
 And he was very old,
 Under the hill,
 There sat he,
 And he was Very old.

I'll tell you a story
 About Jack & Nory—
 And now my story begins,
 I'll tell you another
 About Jack and his brother—
 And now my story's done.

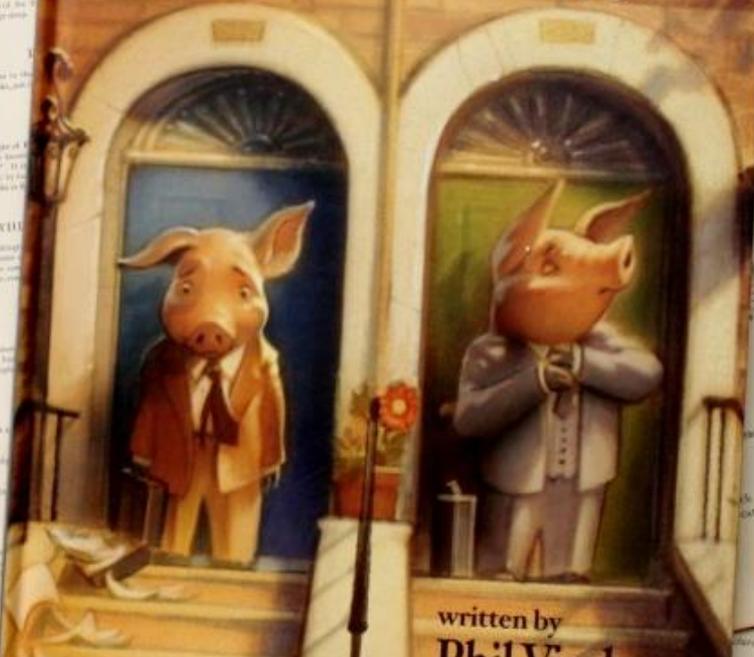

OLD Mother Hubbard
 Went to her cupboard,
 To get her poor dog a bone;

But when she came there
 The cupboard was bare,
 And so the poor dog had none.

Justin Gerard

She went to the barber's
 To buy him a wig,
 But when she came back
 He was dancing a jig.

She went to the tobacconist
 To buy him some snuff,
 But when she came back
 He was riding a pig.

She went to the tobacconist
 To buy him some snuff,
 But when she came back
 He was reading the news.

She went to the seamstress
 To buy him some linen,
 But when she came back
 The dog was spinning.

She went to the hatter's
 To buy him some hats,
 But when she came back
 He was dressed in his clothes.

The dame made a cursey,
 The dog made a bow,
 The dame said, your servant,
 The dog said, how, now.
